4th CReAM/RWI Workshop on the Economics of Migration

Essen, Germany
September 13-14, 2024

On September 13-14, 2024, CReAM (Centre for Research and Analysis of Migration at University College London) and RWI – Leibniz Institute for Economic Research will host their 4th joint workshop on the ‘Economics of Migration’ in Essen, Germany. The aim of the workshop is to bring together young and experienced researchers to present and discuss their work in the broad field of migration economics. Both empirical and theoretical contributions are welcome. The workshop will be organized in a way that encourages interaction among the participants in a relaxed atmosphere.

The keynote lecture will be given by:

Joan Llull (IAE-CSIC, Barcelona School of Economics)

Researchers interested in participating are invited to submit a paper (preferred) or an extended abstract in pdf format to migrationworkshop@rwi-essen.de. The deadline for submissions is June 1, 2024. Early career researchers are particularly encouraged to apply. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by July 1, 2024. All presenters are requested to register no later than August 1, 2024.

There is no registration fee, and we will provide two nights of accommodation for all accepted presenters. Participants do have to cover their own travel costs. Financial support from the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach Foundation is gratefully acknowledged.

Further information on the workshop can be found at <https://www.rwi-essen.de/en/cream-rwi-workshop>.

Organizers:

Julia Bredtmann (RWI)
